Drappier Champagne, Founded in 1808, combines forward-thinking innovation with deep historic roots.

This family-run house, set in 12th-century cellars built by Cistercian monks, revived Pinot Noir in the Aube in the 1930s and pioneered Champagne's first rose in a clear bottle. Known for minimal sulphur use and unique practices - such as fermenting each bottle size individually, from half-bottles to the massive 30L Melchisdech - Drappier crafts wine of elegance, concentration and finesse.

At voco Lythe Hill, we are proud to offer a selection from this remarkable house. Sante!
